Which brought from heaven the news and Prince of Peace.
Cease not, wet eyes, his mercies to entreat:

Drop, drop, slow tears: let your deep flood
Drown all my thoughts and fears,
Nor let his eyes see sin but through my tears.*

Music at Communion

When the Lord turned again the captivity of Sion Adrian Batten

When the Lord turned again the captivity of Sion, then were we like to them that dream.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with joy.

Then said they among the heathen, "The Lord hath done great things for them."

Yea, the Lord hath done great things for us already, whereof we rejoice.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, and is now, and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

MUSICAL NOTES

Though little-known today, the English cleric Phineas Fletcher (1582-1650) was a prolific author and poet. Far less familiar today than his younger contemporary George Herbert, Fletcher is the author of the devotional poem, Drop, drop, slow tears, based on today's Gospel, and the similar incident recounted at Luke 7:36.

Next Saturday morning, March 19, Chatham Baroque, our ensemble-in-residence, presents another in their highly-regarded series of Peanut Butter & Jam Sessions, forty-five minute instructional concerts for pre-schoolers and their parents. Kindermusik instructor Lynda Wingerd joins the trio for a program called, "The Value of the Dot." The concerts take place on Level G of the Parish House, at 10 and 11:30 a.m. Tickets are available at the door, or in advance through www.chathambaroque.org, or by calling 888-71-TICKETS (888-718-4253).

On Good Friday evening, March 25, Chatham Baroque returns to join the Calvary Choir and soloists in three Bach cantatas, reflecting on aspects of Christ's Passion. The concert begins at 8 p.m., and is open to all (open seating, no tickets), thanks to the generosity of our Friends of Music.

NEWCOMERS AND GUESTS are always welcome at Calvary Church. Our service uses the three books located in the pew: The Book of Common Prayer, The Hymnal 1982, and Lift Every Voice and Sing II. Directions in the service bulletin indicate where it is customary to stand or kneel. We invite you to participate as you are able. We hope you will take a moment to read and complete the Welcome Card in the pew, and place it in the offertory plate as it passes.

CHILDREN OF ALL AGES are welcome in worship services. Packets of materials for children are available from the ushers. Nursery Care available during the 9 a.m. and the 11 a.m. services. The Infants' and Toddlers' Nursery is downstairs on the Christian Education level.

WEEKLY OFFERING CARDS that say "My gift comes electronically or by mail" can serve as a visible sign of your gift. Look for the purple cards in a basket in the Narthex or by the North Transept door each week, take one, and place it in the offering plate.

PARISH COUNCIL invites you to stop by our "Welcome and Join-in" booth in the Parish Hall.

Resolution

The Vestry resolution of solidarity and support printed in the Agape and on a poster in the parish hall, is part of Calvary's effort to forge links of understanding and action with The Islamic Center of Pittsburgh. Calvary's PIIN Team (Pennsylvania Interfaith Impact Network) has taken the lead in working with representatives of the Center to create programs and activities which will increase our mutual understanding of Muslim and Christian traditions. On April 3 the Adult Forum will feature Humza Mohamed, from the Islamic Center, and later in the spring we have been invited to a dinner at the Center to continue this educational exchange.

Please add your signature to the resolution panel which is in the the Parish Hall on Sundays and in the Parish House lobby during the week. The resolution with signatures of Calvary members will be delivered to their congregation in an appropriate ceremony.

Easter Monday Flower Delivery – March 28, 2016

One of the many traditions at Calvary Episcopal Church is the delivery of Easter flowers to those for whom prayers were offered during the past year. On Easter Monday in 2015, 21 Calvary parishioners delivered Easter flowers to 80 recipients.

This is a very easy one-day volunteer job and only requires you have time on Monday morning, March 28, to deliver 3–4 Easter flowers to the recipients. Louise Wells prepares the maps to the recipient's home and a card containing a message from the Rector, which you will attach to the flowers you are delivering.

Volunteers are asked to arrive at the Parish Hall between 9 and 11 a.m. to choose your flowers for delivery. A representative of the Flower Delivery Committee will be there for assistance, if needed.

Please call Barbara Hicks at 412.242.1469 or e-mail her at barbleeh@verizon.net to sign up for Easter Monday Flower Delivery.

Holy Baptism

We will celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism on The Day of Pentecost, Sunday, May 15 during the 11 o'clock service, and on The Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost, July 31 during the 9 a.m. service in the Garden. If you have a child to be baptized on that day, or are an adult interested in being baptized, please contact The Rev. T.J. Freeman (tjfreeman@calvarypgh.org) at least two weeks prior to the Baptism.

The Fifth Sunday in Lent

March 13, 2016

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our LORD, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah [43:16-21]

Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: "Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild animals will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise."

Psalm 126

- 1 When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, *
then were we like those who dream.
- 2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, *
and our tongue with shouts of joy.
- 3 Then they said among the nations, *
"The LORD has done great things for them."
- 4 The LORD has done great things for us, *
and we are glad indeed.
- 5 Restore our fortunes, O LORD, *
like the watercourses of the Negev.
- 6 Those who sowed with tears *
will reap with songs of joy.
- 7 Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, *
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Philippians

{3:4b-14}

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my LORD. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to John

{12:1-8}

Response before the Gospel: Glory to you, LORD Christ.

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

Response after the Gospel: Praise to you, LORD Christ.
