Easter Monday Flower Delivery – March 28, 2016

One of the many traditions at Calvary Episcopal Church is the delivery of Easter flowers to those for whom prayers were offered during the past year. On Easter Monday in 2015, 21 Calvary parishioners delivered Easter flowers to 80 recipients.

This is a very easy one-day volunteer job and only requires you have time on Monday morning, March 28, to deliver 3–4 Easter flowers to the recipients. Louise Wells prepares the maps to the recipient's home and a card containing a message from the Rector, which you will attach to the flowers you are delivering.

Volunteers are asked to arrive at the Parish Hall between 9 and 11 a.m. to choose your flowers for delivery. A representative of the Flower Delivery Committee will be there for assistance, if needed.

Please call Barbara Hicks at 412.242.1469 or e-mail her at barbleeh@verizon.net to sign up for Easter Monday Flower Delivery.

Documentary Film Presentation:

The Bibliophile as Bookbinder

The Angling Bindings of S.A. Neff, Jr.

Wednesday, April 6, 2016 at 7 p.m. in Calvary's Parish Hall

This documentary is about one man's passions: books and angling for trout. In the early 1980s, Mr. Neff transitioned from a career in graphic design to hand bookbinding. An autodidact by nature, he began his training with occasional workshops and seminars. Since 1986 his work has been exhibited in the U.S. and abroad. At the turn of this century he had perhaps the largest solo binding exhibition ever mounted in this country. The show traveled to six institutions during a two-year period. The catalogue for the exhibit won a prestigious award for fine design in 2000. Examples of Neff's work has been published in books and periodicals in the U.S. and Europe.

The first part of the film invites the viewer into the angling library which contains over 3,000 volumes (created over five decades) with a focus on fly-fishing for trout and salmon. The second part introduces Sid's favorite sets of binding and discusses concepts and techniques that distinguish his skillful creations. His collection of angling bindings is unique in its genre.

The three filmmakers involved in the production of this documentary, Joe Wittkofski, Michael Weber, and G. Frederic Roth, have a total of 75 years of experience.

There is no charge for the viewing but reservations are recommended. Please contact Weezie Wells by email at lwells@calvarypgh.org.

Resolution

The Vestry resolution of solidarity and support posted in the parish hall, is part of Calvary's effort to forge links of understanding and action with The Islamic Center of Pittsburgh. Calvary's PIIN Team (Pennsylvania Interfaith Impact Network) has taken the lead in working with representatives of the Center to create programs and activities which will increase our mutual understanding of Muslim and Christian traditions. On April 3 the Adult Forum will feature Humza Ahmed, from the Islamic Center, and later in the spring we have been invited to a dinner at the Center to continue this educational exchange.

Please add your signature to the resolution panel which is in the the parish hall on Sundays and in the Parish House lobby during the week. The resolution with signatures of Calvary members will be delivered to their congregation in an appropriate ceremony.

Musical Notes

Edward Cuthbert Bairstow was Organist of York Minster from 1913-46, and one of the finest composers of his generation of church musicians; many of his works continue in use, few more so than the great Easter anthem Sing ye to the Lord. The opening fanfare, echoing the opening line of the Song of Moses and Miriam at the end of tonight's Exodus reading, returns for the closing "Alleluias." These fanfares frame an interior based on a stanza from the familiar Easter hymn, "At the Lamb's high feast we sing," its setting by turns triumphant and lyrical.

William Byrd's In resurrectione tua comes from a collection of his Latin sacred music published in 1589. The five voice-parts interact with almost madrigalian jubilation in projecting the joyful acclamation to the risen Christ.
