MUSICAL NOTES

This morning we welcome the Heinz Chapel Choir from the University of Pittsburgh. For more than 75 years, the Heinz Chapel Choir has presented a cappella music from a variety of time periods and cultural traditions and in a wealth of languages. The Choir's home for the majority of its Pittsburgh performances is the Heinz Memorial Chapel on the University of Pittsburgh campus. The ensemble can be heard in the early fall Choral Showcase (with the Pitt Men's Glee Club and Women's Choral Ensemble), in their highly regarded holiday concert series (broadcast for the past 15 years on WQED-FM), in their spring concert, and at special University functions. The Heinz Chapel Choir is currently under the direction of its tenth conductor, Dr. Susan Rice.

An auditioned ensemble, the Choir is composed of students pursuing many and diverse areas of study in major, minor and certificate concentration. The talented members devote four hours per week for rehearsals, attend Choir Camp each semester, and receive one college credit for their participation.

The Estonia composer Arvo Pärt (b. 1935) has been acclaimed as the most-performed living composer in each of the past five years. Inspired both by liturgical chant and by the minimalist movement, Pärt (pronounced "pair-t") has developed his own musical style, dubbed "tintinabuli," for its evocation of the ringing of bells. Works in this style, like the Magnificat (1989), heard this morning, are typically relatively simple, rhythmically, often with fairly static harmonic, and without tempo changes or other distractions; the challenge comes in the constant interplay of the voices as they alternate notes within the chords. He associates this style most frequently with religious texts, sometimes in Latin, as in the Magnificat, sometimes in Church Slavonic, sometimes even in English.

The Calvary Choir sings a service of Choral Evensong on Sunday afternoon, April 24, at 5 p.m. with music by Herbert Howells and others. All are welcome: please join us! A reception follows.

NEWCOMERS AND GUESTS are always welcome at Calvary Church. Our service uses the three books located in the pew: The Book of Common Prayer, The Hymnal 1982, and Lift Every Voice and Sing II. Directions in the service bulletin indicate where it is customary to stand or kneel. We invite you to participate as you are able. We hope you will take a moment to read and complete the Welcome Card in the pew, and place it in the offertory plate as it passes.

CHILDREN OF ALL AGES are welcome in worship services. Packets of materials for children are available from the ushers. Nursery Care available during the 9 a.m. and the 11 a.m. services. The Infants' and Toddlers' Nursery is downstairs on the Christian Education level.

WEEKLY OFFERING CARDS that say "My gift comes electronically or by mail" can serve as a visible sign of your gift. Look for the purple cards in a basket in the Narthex or by the North Transept door each week, take one, and place it in the offering plate.

PARISH COUNCIL invites you to stop by our "Welcome and Join-in" booth in the Parish Hall.

TODAY – “Bishop Walter Righter: A Distinctively Episcopalian Incident.” Bishop Righter was born in Philadelphia and is buried at Calvary Church here in Pittsburgh. He ordained the first woman in Iowa, the Rev. S. Suzanne Peterson, as a deacon on December 18, 1976 at St. Paul’s Church in Des Moines. After retiring as Bishop of Iowa, he served as assistant bishop to Bishop Spong in the Diocese of Newark. In 1990, when serving in Newark, he ordained Barry Stopfel, an openly gay man living with his partner. Ten bishops brought a presentment against him accusing him of violating church doctrine. On May 15, 1996, a duly convened court of bishops declared that the Episcopal Church “has no doctrine prohibiting the ordination of homosexuals,” and that Bishop Righter did not contradict the “core doctrine” of the church.

David Bird was part of a small team of lawyers and theologians who prepared the defense brief. David will discuss some of the theological premises which undergirded this decision and some of the ways in which they are distinctively Episcopalian and reflect the theological history of the Anglican Communion.

Sunday, April 17: Annual Parish Meeting – No adult forum

Sunday, April 24: “Mental Illness & the Church,” presented by the Pastoral Care Committee. Mental illness affects all segments of our society. In fact, roughly 20% of U.S. adults are challenged with mental illness in any given year. Add to this number family, friends and concerned others, and the issue affects many more of us. Our faith community is in a unique position to help. Learn more and discover the many professional resources available for education, treatment and support here in Allegheny County. Calvary parishioner Kim Falk, who is with the Allegheny County Department of Human Resources, and Susan Harrington, Director of Education at the Southwest PA branch of the National Alliance on Mental Illness, will present.

The Third Sunday of Easter

April 10, 2016

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles [9:1-6, (7-20)]

Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the LORD, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Who are you, LORD?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do." [The men who were traveling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one. Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank. Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The LORD said to him in a vision, "Ananias." He answered, "Here I am, LORD." The LORD said to him, "Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight." But Ananias answered, "LORD, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name." But the LORD said to him, "Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel; I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name." So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, "Brother Saul, the LORD Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength. For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus, and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "He is the Son of God."]

Psalm 30

- 1 I will exalt you, O LORD, because you have lifted me up * and have not let my enemies triumph over me.
- 2 O LORD my God, I cried out to you, * and you restored me to health.
- 3 You brought me up, O LORD, from the dead; *
you restored my life as I was going down to the grave.
- 4 Sing to the LORD, you servants of his; *
give thanks for the remembrance of his holiness.
- 5 For his wrath endures but the twinkling of an eye, * his favor for a lifetime.
- 6 Weeping may spend the night, * but joy comes in the morning.
- 7 While I felt secure, I said, "I shall never be disturbed. *
You, LORD, with your favor, made me as strong as the mountains."
- 8 Then you hid your face, * and I was filled with fear.
- 9 I cried to you, O LORD; * I pleaded with the LORD, saying,

- 10 “What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the Pit? *
will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?
11 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me; * O LORD, be my helper.”
12 You have turned my wailing into dancing; *
you have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with joy.
13 Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing; *
O LORD my God, I will give you thanks for ever.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Revelation to John [5:11-14]

I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, “Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!” Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, “To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!” And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” And the elders fell down and worshiped.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to John [21:1-19]

Response before the Gospel: Glory to you, LORD Christ.

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, “I am going fishing.” They said to him, “We will go with you.” They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, “Children, you have no fish, have you?” They answered him, “No.” He said to them, “Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.” So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It is the LORD!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the LORD, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off. When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.” So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, “Who are you?” because they knew it was the LORD. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?” He said to him, “Yes, LORD; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my lambs.” A second time he said to him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” He said to him, “Yes, LORD; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Tend my sheep.” He said to him the third time, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, “Do you love me?” And he said to him, “LORD, you know everything; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.” (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, “Follow me.”

Response after the Gospel: Praise to you, LORD Christ.
