THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory Let Us Love in Deed and Truth Larry King

If anyone has the world's goods, and sees his neighbor in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Let us not love in word or speech, but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth. And this is his commandment, that we should believe in his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another.

—Based on 1 John 3: 17-23

MUSICAL NOTES

The Prelude is based on a Lutheran chorale, itself based on an eleventh-century Easter chant. (Both antecedents appear in The Hymnal 1982, as nos. 185/186 and 183, respectively.) The hymn-melody appears in the middle of a three-voice texture, surrounded by the interplay of two imitative accompanimental voices.

The Welsh composer Paul Mealer (b. 1975) rocketed to international prominence with the inclusion of his Ubi caritas in the marriage service of the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, five years ago this week. The piece has already become a part of the “standard repertory” for choirs around the world; its accessibly hazy harmonies epitomize the appealing tonal language of its composer.

This afternoon at 5 p.m. the Calvary Choir sings Evensong here at Calvary; the music is by Peter Aston, Charles Wood and Edgar Bainton, and all are welcome. A reception follows.

Another service of Evensong will mark the Feast of the Ascension, on Thursday, May 5; the Calvary Choir will join with the choir of St. Andrew’s in a service beginning at 8 p.m., at St. Andrew’s (Hampton Street and North Euclid, in Highland Park); T.J. Freeman will be the preacher.

NEWCOMERS AND GUESTS are always welcome at Calvary Church. Our service uses the three books located in the pew: The Book of Common Prayer, The Hymnal 1982, and Lift Every Voice and Sing II. Directions in the service bulletin indicate where it is customary to stand or kneel. We invite you to participate as you are able. We hope you will take a moment to read and complete the Welcome Card in the pew, and place it in the offertory plate as it passes.

CHILDREN OF ALL AGES are welcome in worship services. Packets of materials for children are available from the ushers. Nursery Care available during the 9 a.m. and the 11 a.m. services. The Infants' and Toddlers' Nursery is downstairs on the Christian Education level.

WEEKLY OFFERING CARDS that say "My gift comes electronically or by mail" can serve as a visible sign of your gift. Look for the purple cards in a basket in the Narthex or by the North Transept door each week, take one, and place it in the offering plate.

PARISH COUNCIL invites you to stop by our "Welcome and Join-in" booth in the Parish Hall.

Please add your signature to the resolution panel which is in the the parish hall on Sundays and in the Parish House lobby during the week. The resolution with signatures of Calvary members will be delivered to their congregation in an appropriate ceremony.

Join Leslie Reimer for a discussion of Atul Gawande's book Being Mortal. We will consider the book's insights about the modern experience of mortality, how medicine impacts that experience, how we deal with our finitude, and how we live a good life all the way to the very end.

Lost but Found

Take a look on the small table setup in the Parish Hall and see if any of the items are yours. There are keys, glasses, scarves, and toys that have been found around the Church.

Sunday, May 15 is The Day of Pentecost

Strawberries and Ice Cream will be served after the 11 a.m. service.

Everyone is encouraged to wear red on that day.

Help read the Gospel in many languages.

On Pentecost, Calvary Church has the custom of reading the Gospel of the day simultaneously in as many languages as possible. The sound of many languages recalls for us the experience of the disciples and the crowd on that first Pentecost following the Resurrection. We invite anyone who knows a language other than English to read the Gospel in that language at the 9 a.m. or 11 a.m. services. When the Gospel is announced, all will begin to read at the same time in their various languages. (Even if you are a bit shy or not overly confident of perfect pronunciation, you can add your voice to the mix.) Translations of the Bible text in many languages are available at www.bibledatabase.net. The Gospel reading for Pentecost is from the Gospel of John, chapter 14, verses 8-17, and verses 25-27. Thank you for helping us celebrate this festival of the Holy Spirit! (There will be a celebration of Holy Baptism on Pentecost Sunday at the 11 a.m. service.)

Soup Group Sale on Pentecost Sunday, May 15

The Soup group will be selling soup after all services. At the request of the Rector, the proceeds from this sale will be used to purchase prints that will beautify the stairwell leading down to the Beginnings classrooms. The artist, He Qi, creates Asian (Japanese specifically) reinterpretations of biblical scenes in his paintings. Visit the artist's website at www.heqiart.com. Although we will not be taking orders, there will be several great soups available for sale. If you have a favorite soup, please email me. In preparation for this sale the Soup Group will be cooking in Calvary's kitchen on Friday, May 13 at 10 a.m. Please join us! Adele Eley, adele.eley@gmail.com, 412.371.6921.

The Gospel of Luke (10 a.m., in McClintic Hall)

The last of the series, a combination of lecture and discussion, will be led by the Rev. Jonathon Jensen and Mr. Chuck Esposito.

Today: “Mental Illness & the Church,” presented by the Pastoral Care Committee.

Mental illness affects all segments of our society. In fact, roughly 20% of U.S. adults are challenged with mental illness in any given year. Add to this number family, friends and concerned others, and the issue affects many more of us. Our faith community is in a unique position to help. Learn more and discover the many professional resources available for education, treatment and support here in Allegheny County. Calvary parishioner Kim Falk, who is with the Allegheny County Department of Human Resources, and Susan Harrington, Director of Education at the Southwest PA branch of the National Alliance on Mental Illness, will present.

Sunday, May 1: Marathon Sunday – No adult forum or formation classes

Sunday, May 8: The Rt. Rev. Dorsey McConnell will lead the adult forum on this day.

Guide Book & Directory Advertising Opportunity

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family this summer at no cost to us, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Church Office.

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It “will pay” to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life: Grant us so perfectly to know your Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life, that we may steadfastly follow his steps in the way that leads to eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our LORD, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles [11:1-18]

Now the apostles and the believers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also accepted the word of God. So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticized him, saying, "Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?" Then Peter began to explain it to them, step by step, saying, "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. There was something like a large sheet coming down from heaven, being lowered by its four corners; and it came close to me. As I looked at it closely I saw four-footed animals, beasts of prey, reptiles, and birds of the air. I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Get up, Peter; kill and eat.' But I replied, 'By no means, LORD; for nothing profane or unclean has ever entered my mouth.' But a second time the voice answered from heaven, 'What God has made clean, you must not call profane.' This happened three times; then everything was pulled up again to heaven. At that very moment three men, sent to me from Caesarea, arrived at the house where we were. The Spirit told me to go with them and not to make a distinction between them and us. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered the man's house. He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, 'Send to Joppa and bring Simon, who is called Peter; he will give you a message by which you and your entire household will be saved.' And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as it had upon us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the LORD, how he had said, 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' If then God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the LORD Jesus Christ, who was I that I could hinder God?" When they heard this, they were silenced. And they praised God, saying, "Then God has given even to the Gentiles the repentance that leads to life."

Psalm 148

- 1 Hallelujah! Praise the LORD from the heavens; *
praise him in the heights.
- 2 Praise him, all you angels of his; *
praise him, all his host.
- 3 Praise him, sun and moon; * praise him, all you shining stars.
- 4 Praise him, heaven of heavens, * and you waters above the heavens.

- 5 Let them praise the Name of the LORD; *
for he commanded, and they were created.
- 6 He made them stand fast for ever and ever; *
he gave them a law which shall not pass away.
- 7 Praise the LORD from the earth, * you sea-monsters and all deeps;
8 Fire and hail, snow and fog, * tempestuous wind, doing his will;
9 Mountains and all hills, * fruit trees and all cedars;
10 Wild beasts and all cattle, * creeping things and winged birds;
11 Kings of the earth and all peoples, *
princes and all rulers of the world;
12 Young men and maidens, * old and young together.
- 13 Let them praise the Name of the LORD, *
for his Name only is exalted, his splendor is over earth and heaven.
- 14 He has raised up strength for his people
and praise for all his loyal servants, *
the children of Israel, a people who are near him. Hallelujah!
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Revelation to John [21:1-6]

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to John [13:31-35]

Response before the Gospel: Glory to you, LORD Christ.

At the last supper, when Judas had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Response after the Gospel: Praise to you, LORD Christ.
