Response before the Gospel Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Response after the Gospel Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

The Reverend Leslie G. Reimer

The Nicene Creed Congregation standing

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Intercessor Living God, in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Confession and Absolution

CELEBRANT AND PEOPLE: God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

The Peace

CELEBRANT: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

PEOPLE: And also with you.

All may greet one another.

The Offertory Hymn All stand and sing

printed inside

The Holy Communion

CELEBRANT: The Lord be with you.

PEOPLE: And also with you.

CELEBRANT: Lift up your hearts.

PEOPLE: We lift them to the Lord.

CELEBRANT: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

PEOPLE: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

CELEBRANT: We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love. And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we say:

CELEBRANT AND PEOPLE:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God. Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with [_____ and] all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer All say together

The Breaking of the Bread (A brief silence is kept.)

CELEBRANT: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

PEOPLE: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

THE ADMINISTRATION OF HOLY COMMUNION

All baptized persons are welcome to receive Holy Communion.

*Those not wishing to receive Communion may come forward for a blessing.
Parents are encouraged to bring children to receive Communion or a blessing.*

Postcommunion Prayer All say together

God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing Congregation standing

The Dismissal All respond Thanks be to God.

MUSICAL NOTES

The American organist and composer David N. Johnson (1922-87) taught successively at Syracuse University, St. Olaf College, and the University of Arizona; he composed the attractive tune of today's opening hymn, which won a national hymntune-writing competition in 1982, and his Trumpet Tune in D is a popular modern contribution to this small but popular category of organ-composition.

Welcome to Calvary Church

Newcomers and Guests are always welcome at Calvary Church. Our service uses the three books located in the pew: The Book of Common Prayer, The Hymnal 1982, and Lift Every Voice and Sing II. Directions in the service bulletin indicate where it is customary to stand or kneel. We invite you to participate as you are able. We hope you will take a moment to read and complete the Welcome Card in the pew, and place it in the offertory plate as it passes.

Children of all ages are welcome in worship services. Packets of materials for children are available from the ushers.

Weekly Offering Cards that say “My gift comes electronically or by mail” can serve as a visible sign of your gift. Look for the purple cards in a basket in the Narthex or by the North Transept door each week, take one, and place it in the offering plate.

Christian Formation classes, for all ages, and nursery care, will resume in September.

Parish Council invites you to stop by our “Welcome and Join-in” booth in the Parish Hall.

Memorial Service for Evelyn Jane Kirby

On Tuesday, September 2, 2014, at 11 a.m. at Calvary Church, there will be a service to remember Evelyn Jane Kirby. Evelyn is the baby daughter of Rachel and Brian Kirby, and sister of Isaac. She was born and died on August 22, 2014. Please keep Evelyn and her family close in your prayers in this profoundly sad time.

Fall Worship Schedule

We will return to our regular Sunday service schedule beginning on September 7.

The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 8, 9, and 11 a.m. in the church.

The regular weekday Eucharist schedule will resume on Monday, September 8. There will be celebrations of the Holy Eucharist on Mondays at 6 p.m., and Wednesdays at 7 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

Beginning September 2, parish offices will be open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. (The church and offices will be closed on Labor Day, Monday, September 1).

September 7 is Celebration Sunday!

The parish community will gather on that day in a continuous social event when we re-connect with each other. There will be food and fellowship all morning, so that we all can enjoy the celebration.

- Food and fellowship for worshippers who attend the 8 o'clock service will take place before that service, since that is the tradition with the early folks.
- After both the 9 and 11 o'clock services, food and fellowship follows. The usual picnic takes place after the 11 o'clock service.

Group leaders are encouraged to process behind the choir at the 11 o'clock service.

Bring an item to represent your ministry and place it near the altar where it will be blessed.

We call this time a "kick-off" since the main focus will be fellowship and the opportunity for us to re-connect with each other. Leaders of our various ministries will be present to answer questions and discuss how you can participate. A brief slide show of the ministries will be shown. Have a cup of coffee and watch the highlights of the tremendous work our parish community does.

A pot-luck picnic lunch will follow the 11 a.m. service on that day. Calvary will provide the hot dogs, a drink and a dessert. You are asked to bring a salad or a side dish. Would you call the Calvary reservations line at 412.661.0120, extension 140 to let us know if you are coming to the picnic? It makes planning so much easier. Thank you so much!

Prayer List Update

An important part of our worship at Calvary is the opportunity to pray by name for people in need. We pray for members of our congregation and for many others for whom our prayers are requested. On September 7, 2014, we will make a fresh start with the Prayer List included in the Sunday bulletin. In order to keep our prayers current and focused, we are asking for your help. If there is someone whose name you would like to have on the list, please give that information to Weezie Wells (lwells@calvarypgh.org) or Leslie Reimer (lreimer@calvarypgh.org). The renewed list will include only the names which have been sent to us. People may remain on the prayer list for as long as necessary, because we know and understand that many needs are on going. However, when someone is ready to be removed from the list, we ask that you let us know. Thank you for your help and for your understanding.

Calvary Stitchers

To support members of the Parish who are going through illness or a difficult period in life, a prayer shawl group is being formed. We will be known as the Calvary Stitchers. You will be able to knit or crochet a shawl on your own or we may meet as a group. If interested, please contact Kathy Kincade at 412.519.2244. She will have patterns, ideas, and suggestions.

Calvary 20s/30s Group

As the 20s/30s group begins anew this year; we build our time together on the four principles of Prayer, Work, Study, and Fellowship. The kick-off event for the 20s/30s group at Calvary will be held Friday September 12 at 6 p.m. in the Swan Garden (weather permitting). We will share food and fellowship before ending the evening with the monastic office of Compline. Please mark your calendars so that you can join us. Please RSVP to T.J. at tjfreeman@calvarypgh.org.

Youth Ministry at Calvary

This fall at Calvary will be an exciting time for Youth Ministry. We are currently exploring the ways that we can build up our current programming and better integrate all of our youth programs. The Calvary Youth Group and the High School Sunday School Class are being led by some amazing people with great ideas. Watch for more information as we finalize our fall schedule. -T.J.

Special Next Step Group Presentation

The Next Step Group is pleased to host The Reverend John Fetterman, Calvary's theologian-in-residence, who will present a talk on the teachings and writings of Richard Rohr, Franciscan priest of the New Mexico Province. The presentation will take place on Saturday, September 27 from 10:30-11:30 a.m. in the Conference Room. All are welcome.

Father Rohr founded the Center for Action and Contemplation in Albuquerque, New Mexico in 1986, where he presently serves as founding director. He is the author of more than 20 books on spirituality including, Breathing Under Water: Spirituality and the Twelve Steps, Immortal Diamond and Falling Upward, to name a few.

Soup Group Update

The next Soup Group cooking session will be on Friday, September 19 at 10 a.m. in Calvary's kitchen. Please join us! No experience needed. More information needed? Contact Adele Eley at 412.371.6921 or adele.eley@gmail.com.

Bike Rack Anyone?

It has been brought to our attention by both parishioners and visitors that it would be nice if Calvary had a few bike racks that could be used to secure bikes. Currently bikes are placed against and sometimes locked up to the railing that separates the parking lot and sidewalk. The man who made the iron rod locks that are used on the doors in the Narthex said he could develop a circular bike rack that could be attached to the existing parking lot railing. The cost would be $185 per rack, of which we need four. We have received a donation to cover the cost of one of them, and we are looking for a few cycling enthusiasts who could help offset the cost of the other three.

Save the Date for the CROP Hunger Walk

The 2014 Pittsburgh East CROP Hunger Walk which is set for the afternoon of Sunday, October 12. Details will be coming soon.

Deadlines for Publications

The deadline for submissions for the next issue of Agape is Friday, September 5, 2014. Please e-mail your text to calvary@calvarypgh.org or deliver it to the church office. Notices for the Sunday service bulletin must be received by the end of the day on Wednesday. Thank you.

Rosie: By Any Other Name – The Riveting True Story of the Labor Icon

Certainly, one of the more readily recognizable icons of labor is “Rosie the Riveter,” the indefatigable World War II-era woman who rolled up her sleeves, flexed her arm muscles and said, “We Can Do It!” But, this isn’t the original Rosie.

In 1942, as World War II raged in Europe and the Pacific and the song “Rosie the Riveter” filled radio waves across the home front, manufacturing giant Westinghouse commissioned artist J. Howard Miller to make a series of posters to promote the war effort. One such poster featured the image of a woman with her hair wrapped up in a red polka-dot scarf, rolling up her sleeve and flexing her bicep. At the top of the poster, the words ‘We Can Do It!’ are printed in a blue caption bubble. To many people, this image is “the” Rosie the Riveter. But it was never the intention to make this image “Rosie,” nor did many Americans think of her as “Rosie.” The connection of Miller’s image and “Rosie” is a recent phenomenon.

The “Rosie” image popular during the war was created by illustrator Norman Rockwell (who had most certainly heard the “Rosie the Riveter” song) for the cover of the Saturday Evening Post on May 29, 1943 — the Memorial Day issue. The image depicts a muscular woman wearing overalls, goggles and pins of honor on her lapel. She sports a leather wrist band and rolled-up sleeves. She sits with a riveting tool in her lap, eating a sandwich, and “Rosie” is inscribed on her lunch pail. And, she’s stepping on a copy of Adolph Hitler’s book “Mein Kampf.”

The magazine cover exemplified the American can-do spirit and illustrated the notion of women working in previously male-dominated manufacturing jobs, an ever-growing reality, to help the United States fight the war while the men fought over seas.

The cover was an enormous success and soon stories about real life “Rosies” began appearing in newspapers across the country. The government took advantage of the popularity of Rosie the Riveter and embarked on a recruiting campaign of the same name. The campaign brought millions of women out of the home and into the workforce. To this day, Rosie the Riveter is still considered the most successful government advertising campaign in history.

After the war, numerous requests were made for the Saturday Evening Post image of Rosie the Riveter, but Curtis Publishing, the owner of the Post, refused all requests. The publishing company was possibly concerned that the composers of the song “Rosie the Riveter” would hold them liable for copyright infringement.

Since then, the J. Howard Miller “We Can Do It!” image has replaced Norman Rockwell’s illustration as “Rosie the Riveter” in the minds of many people. Miller’s Rosie has been imprinted on coffee mugs, mouse pads, and countless other items, making her and not the original “Rosie” the most famous of all labor icons.

Prayers for Healing

Prayer for healing has long been significant in the life of Calvary Church. At the invitation of Calvary's rector John Baiz, Emily Gardner Neal began a decade of healing ministry here in 1966, and healing services have continued since then. The Book of Common Prayer (page 455) provides for ministry to the sick, including prayer, laying on of hands, and anointing. Prayers for healing will resume being offered at the 11 a.m. Eucharist on September 7. After they have received Communion, those wishing to receive the laying on of hands may come to the altar rail in the Lady Chapel, where one of the clergy will pray for them. We invite all who seek healing of body, mind, or spirit to come for this sacramental sign of God's grace and Christ's healing presence.

Is your image of God too small?

Saturday, September 13, 2014

A one-day retreat with The Reverend Dr. Moni McIntyre,
Rector of the Church of the Holy Cross, Homewood

Dr. McIntyre will highlight various images of God found in the Bible and reflect on the question "Is your image of God too small?" She will invite us to examine how our images of God have shaped our theology and spirituality. You are asked to bring a Bible. The New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) is preferable.

All are invited to attend.

The event is free and will run from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Light breakfast refreshments will be served starting at 9 a.m., and the retreat will begin at 9:30.

Please bring a brown bag lunch for your noon-time meal.

To register for the event, please call Calvary church
412.661.0120 extension 140.

For any questions, contact Mary Ann Slater at saurslater@yahoo.com or 412.793.8371.

The retreat is sponsored by the Women of Calvary.

Seminarian to Join Calvary

Mr. Shane Siciliano will join us as Seminarian at Calvary beginning in September and will continue through May, 2015. Shane will experience an unpaid internship learning about all aspects of life at Calvary as part of his preparation for ordination. This is somewhat similar to a McNulty Intern but will take place over the course of an academic year rather than the summer and is on a part-time basis, about ten to twelve hours per week.

Shane is a student at the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary and expects to be graduated in 2017 with a joint Master of Divinity from PTS and a Master of Social Work from the University of Pittsburgh. He also has spent part of his preparatory process at St. Peter's in Brentwood and Trinity Cathedral. He just returned from a mission trip to South Africa and Lesotho (see photo).

At Calvary, Shane will assist with worship, pastoral care, and Christian formation. He will also learn about administration, priestly identity, and the day to day life in a parish. After reception of his academic degrees, he hopes to be ordained as a deacon and then priest to serve in the Episcopal Church.

Please welcome Shane to the Calvary community.

Calvary Youth Group Kick Off: September 7!

Stop by the Youth Table on Celebration Sunday, September 7 with a white tee shirt and TYE DYE with us and learn about all of the fun activities we will be doing at CYG this year. Parents, please stop by at the Youth Table too, you can pick up a schedule for the fall and give us your child's contact information.

Calvary Youth Group and High School Sunday School class are planning their first road trip of the season on Saturday, September 20 to Go Ape Zip Line and Tree Top Adventure, located in North Park. CYG went last year and had a blast. All Calvary Youth 6th - 12th grade are invited to come along. The fee will be supplemented by CYG but your cost is $20 for youth and $30 for adult. Parents are encouraged to join the fun and we will need chaperones. In order to secure a time for our adventure we need a solid count by September 7. Please provide the appropriate fee by check and made out to Calvary Episcopal Church with CYG in the memo line, no later than Sunday September 7.

Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

August 31, 2014

Proper 17A

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of your Name; increase in us true religion; nourish us with all goodness; and bring forth in us the fruit of good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah [15:15-21]

O Lord, you know; remember me and visit me, and bring down retribution for me on my persecutors. In your forbearance do not take me away; know that on your account I suffer insult. Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart; for I am called by your name, O Lord, God of hosts. I did not sit in the company of merry-makers, nor did I rejoice; under the weight of your hand I sat alone, for you had filled me with indignation. Why is my pain unceasing, my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Truly, you are to me like a deceitful brook, like waters that fail. Therefore thus says the Lord: "If you turn back, I will take you back, and you shall stand before me. If you utter what is precious, and not what is worthless, you shall serve as my mouth. It is they who will turn to you, not you who will turn to them. And I will make you to this people a fortified wall of bronze; they will fight against you, but they shall not prevail over you, for I am with you to save you and deliver you," says the Lord. "I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless."

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 26:1-8

- 1 Give judgment for me, O Lord, for I have lived with integrity; *
I have trusted in the Lord and have not faltered.
  - 2 Test me, O Lord, and try me; * examine my heart and my mind.
  - 3 For your love is before my eyes; *
I have walked faithfully with you.
  - 4 I have not sat with the worthless, *
nor do I consort with the deceitful.
  - 5 I have hated the company of evildoers; *
I will not sit down with the wicked.
  - 6 I will wash my hands in innocence, O Lord, *
that I may go in procession round your altar,
  - 7 Singing aloud a song of thanksgiving *
and recounting all your wonderful deeds.
  - 8 Lord, I love the house in which you dwell *
and the place where your glory abides.
- Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: * as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans [12:9-21]

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." No, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Matthew

[16:21-28]

Response before the Gospel: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things." Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life? For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

Response after the Gospel: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Large print copies of the service materials and listening devices are
