MUSICAL NOTES

This afternoon at 2:30 p.m, Chatham Baroque kicks off its 2013-14 season with a concert featuring instrumental music by Arcangelo Corelli. The performance is in the Laughlin Music Center on the Chatham University campus; tickets are available at the door.

Then at 5 p.m., the Calvary Choir offers a service of Evensong, to which all are warmly invited. The music for this quintessentially Anglican liturgy includes beautiful canticle settings and an anthem by the early twentieth-century composer Charles Wood. A brief organ recital by Alan Lewis follows the service, and a reception ensues.

Next Saturday, October 12, the internationally acclaimed English choral ensemble Stile Antico presents a program of Tudor sacred music here at Calvary at 8 p.m. Their last concert here, three years ago, was stunningly beautiful, and this one promises to be equally lovely, with music by Byrd, Tallis, Gibbons, and other great late-sixteenth-century composers. The program is jointly sponsored by the Friends of Music and the Renaissance & Baroque Society of Pittsburgh; tickets are available for purchase at www.rbsp.org, or at the door. ### Chatham Baroque

This afternoon at 2:30 p.m., Chatham Baroque kicks off its 2013-14 season with a concert featuring instrumental music by Arcangelo Corelli. The performance is in the Laughlin Music Center on the Chatham University campus; tickets are available at the door.

Then at 5 p.m., the Calvary Choir offers a service of Evensong, to which all are warmly invited. The program is jointly sponsored by the Friends of Music and the Renaissance & Baroque Society of Pittsburgh; tickets are available for purchase at www.rbsp.org, or at the door. Please come!

An organ recital by Olivier Latry (one of the four staff-organists of Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris) will take place at Calvary on Sunday afternoon, October 20 at 4 p.m. Free tickets are available to Calvary parishioners after today's service, or through the Parish Office over the next two weeks. The program will include works by Bach, Vierne, Widor, and Duruflé; M. Latry will also demonstrate his renowned skill as an improvisateur, with an extemporized piece on a submitted theme. This recital is part of our celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the installation of Calvary's noted Casavant organ, and a festive reception will follow. Please plan to join us!

At the close of this morning's Epistle, Paul reminds Timothy of the centrality of the Holy Spirit in shaping the transmission of the faith from generation to generation. The Prelude and Postlude are both based on a fifteenth-century German hymn, itself an adaptation of a medieval Latin hymn for Pentecost, celebrating the Spirit's living role in the life of the faithful. (English renderings of that hymn appear as Hymns 226, 227, and 228 of The Hymnal 1982.) Buxtehude places the melody, somewhat decorated, in the topmost voice; Bach makes it the thundering bass-line of a series of vigorous fugal sections.

United Thank Offering

On Sunday, October 27, you will find a blue envelope in your service bulletin marking the fall ingathering of UTO, the United Thank Offering. Women of Calvary (WoC), which coordinates this collection, wholeheartedly encourages members of the congregation as well as visitors to make a contribution to this worthy charitable undertaking.

In 2013, UTO grants have reached a large number dioceses and communities in the U.S. and abroad. They have, for example, helped to build a vocational training school in the Dominican Republic, support healthcare for mothers and newborn children in Haiti, fund a rehabilitation training program for children with disabilities in Jerusalem, renovate and improve apartments for homeless people on Kodiak Island in Alaska, and purchase and operate mobile showers for the homeless in San Diego, thereby increasing not only hygiene but also helping to improve water quality for people throughout the area.

In Calvary, as in Episcopal churches throughout the country, UTO is entrusted to promote thank offerings, to receive them, and to distribute the money raised for grants in our own diocese, as well as nationwide and abroad. In the recent past, organizations in our East End neighborhood have benefited from these modest-to-substantial grants.

Please look for the blue envelope in your service bulletin in which to make your donation at the offertory, or at such time in the near future which is convenient for you. Checks may be made out to Calvary Episcopal Church and designated for UTO.

Sisterhood Meetings

Have you found yourself looking for a group of women with whom to share experiences of faith and our accumulated wisdom from our life experiences – both happy and sad, and best of all to make new friendships and to laugh together? “The Sisterhood” will include Bible study and would enrich our prayer life. We would learn from each other.

We will meet at 10 o’clock in the Parlor on these Sundays: October 13, November 3 and December 1. If you have questions, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you

Many thanks to all of the Calvary parishioners for your participation in the Women of Calvary’s “Pack to School Project” for the 2013-2014 school year. A total of $1,415 was donated this year to be sent to Pittsburgh Lincoln School. This is the largest cash donation we have ever collected for “Pack to School” since the project began in 2001!

In addition to the cash donation, here are some of the school supplies, by the numbers, that you so generously donated to our friends at Lincoln: 46 backpacks, 42 white uniform tops, 90 packs of pens and pencils, 58 notebooks, 37 binders, 22 protractors, compasses and rulers, 72 pairs of underwear and socks, 37 boxes of crayons, and 22 calculators, among other items.

New this year – we placed a pocket-sized wooden cross into each child’s backpack as a special blessing from all of us for the school year.

Special thanks to Adele Eley for her help in packing and transporting the supplies and to Ms. Ebony Williams, our teacher-in-charge at Lincoln School who was so generous with her time and support. – Sondra Krimmel, Pack to School Coordinator 2013

Recycle a Coat and Warm a Heart

East End Cooperative Ministry is collecting warm coats, hats, gloves, and scarves to distribute to children and adults in our neighborhood. There is a special box in the Parish Hall.

Please leave your donations there. The collection will run thru November 6. Thank You!

Prayers for Healing

Many have expressed appreciation for the healing prayers during Lent, so prayers for healing will continue to be offered at the 11 a.m. Sunday Eucharist. After they have received Communion, those wishing to receive the laying on of hands may come to the altar rail in the Lady Chapel, where one of the clergy will pray for them. We invite all who seek healing of body, mind, or spirit to come for this sacramental sign of God’s grace and Christ’s healing presence.

Altar Flowers

Help us keep the church in full bloom by donating flowers in memory of, or in honor of, someone special. If you would like to place a memorial listing, please contact Marsha Morris in the church office at 412.661.0120, ext. 111.

TODAY – Arab Spring: What Happened and What’s Next. Tarek and Pamela Abdalla and their family lived for 3 1/2 years in the United Arab Emirates. Come hear him talk about the Arab world and the causes of its conflicts and how that relates to the Islamic religion. This critical region of our world is rapidly changing on a daily basis. Learn how these changes began and what could be next for these vital global relationships.

October 13 – Ownership, Consumerism, the American Dream, Sustaining Value: A Dialogue about Stewardship. Stewardship is the spiritual attitude that guides us in using all of God’s gracious gifts, without ever being enslaved by them.

- Ownership: what does it mean, given the statement, “For we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world. What does it profit anyone to gain even the whole world, and lose God?”
- Consumerism: ‘He who has the most stuff wins’---what do we ‘win’? We are always more than any grouping of ‘things’ we either have, or don’t have.
- The parable of the talents: Does it set in place any reason to think that making large amounts of money is more pleasing to God than making less?
- Sustaining value: How do we avoid waste and participate in the renewal of God’s creation? Everyone has some aspect of a stewardship ministry in taking care of their piece of the ‘present’ and encouraging discovery and development of other parts of creation.

Please join The Reverend John Fetterman and Mary Lou Southwood in a dialogue to explore concepts that challenge us in everyday life, and are an integral part of our relationship with God, our neighbors everywhere, and ourselves.

Coming: November 3 – Harry Potter and the Gospel

John Fetterman, our theologian in residence, welcomes Harry Potter fans of all ages to this intergenerational discussion. Some key issues in the stories, especially the first book, The Sorcerer’s Stone will be addressed. The topics will include the problem of evil (What’s fair?); salvation (What’s it take?) and grace (How in the world?).

November 9, 2013

Our annual Holiday Bazaar is only a month away, and it's better than ever this year. Let's start with the Silent Auction, which has a week at a private home in Moraine State Park, a handmade Rwandan basket, a knitting bag from Nantucket, a home in the Berkshires for a week, two nights at a hotel in Washington, D.C.

and a week at Calvary Camp. Pittsburgh native Stephen Chbosky personally signed a copy of his best-selling book, Perks of Being a Wallflower, and we've got other celebrity items coming. There will also be a beauty table this year where you can pick up a professional blow-dryer, flat iron and curling iron from Belson as well as hair care products from TIGI, Redken, Pureology, L'Oreal Professionnel and Malibu C. Explore Nature's Gifts for terrariums, wreaths, holiday arrangements, herbs, statuary and live plants like mums, paper whites and decorative cabbage and kale.

Fine Linens is looking for tablecloths, pillowcases, hand towels, dresser scarves, table runners and more. Once again, Mary Ellen Leigh will be providing handmade dog biscuits at the Gourmet Table. Trust us, they sell like hotcakes. The Handmade Table is looking for knitted or crocheted items and handcrafted jewelry to sell. Baked Goods also wants your homemade pies, cakes, cookies, brownies, candy and other yummy treats. Remember: you can freeze these items up to a month in advance. Now is the time to go through your jewelry box and donate unwanted items in good repair to the Jewelry

Table. We're also looking for gently used handbags, scarves, ties, wallets and other small items for the Boutique Table. Attic Treasures will also take household goods like china, flatware, small lamps, games, toys, small appliances, vases, glassware, occasional tables and more. We will pick up larger items on Wednesday, November 6. To donate, contact Susie Prentiss at prentiss1942@gmail.com. And don't forget to visit us on Facebook at Calvary Holiday Bazaar.

Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

October 6, 2013

Proper 22

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Habak'kuk [1:4; 2:1-4]

The oracle that the prophet Habakkuk saw. O Lord, how long shall I cry for help, and you will not listen? Or cry to you "Violence!" and you will not save? Why do you make me see wrongdoing and look at trouble? Destruction and violence are before me; strife and contention arise. So the law becomes slack and justice never prevails. The wicked surround the righteous – therefore judgment comes forth perverted. I will stand at my watchpost, and station myself on the rampart; I will keep watch to see what he will say to me, and what he will answer concerning my complaint. Then the Lord answered me and said: Write the vision; make it plain on tablets, so that a runner may read it. For there is still a vision for the appointed time; it speaks of the end, and does not lie. If it seems to tarry, wait for it; it will surely come, it will not delay. Look at the proud! Their spirit is not right in them, but the righteous live by their faith.

Psalm 37:1-10

- 1 Do not fret yourself because of evildoers; *
do not be jealous of those who do wrong.
- 2 For they shall soon wither like the grass, *
and like the green grass fade away.
- 3 Put your trust in the Lord and do good; *
dwell in the land and feed on its riches.
- 4 Take delight in the Lord, *
and he shall give you your heart's desire.
- 5 Commit your way to the Lord and put your trust in him, * and he will bring it to pass.
- 6 He will make your righteousness as clear as the light * and your just dealing as the noonday.
- 7 Be still before the Lord *
and wait patiently for him.
- 8 Do not fret yourself over the one who prospers, *
the one who succeeds in evil schemes.
- 9 Refrain from anger, leave rage alone; *
do not fret yourself; it leads only to evil.

- 10 For evildoers shall be cut off, *
but those who wait upon the Lord shall possess the land.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: * as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy [1:1-14]

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, To Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. I am grateful to God – whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did – when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline. Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke [17:5-10]

Response before the Gospel: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!” The Lord replied, “If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you. Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, ‘Come here at once and take your place at the table’? Would you not rather say to him, ‘Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink’? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, ‘We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!’”

Response after the Gospel: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Large print copies of the service materials and listening devices are available from the ushers.
Please ask in the Narthex.
