MUSICAL NOTES

Next Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m., Olivier Latry (one of the four staff-organists of Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris) will play an organ recital Calvary. Co-sponsored by the Organ Artists Series of Pittsburgh, the recital is open to Calvary parishioners at no charge (tickets are available in the parish office during the week, or next Sunday at Coffee Hour). The program includes works by Bach, Vierne, Widor, and Duruflé; M. Latry will also demonstrate his renowned skill as an improvisateur, with an extemporized piece on a submitted theme. This recital is part of our celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the installation of Calvary's noted Casavant organ, and a festive reception will follow. Please plan to join us!

Please also plan to be here for the annual Requiem liturgy on Friday, November 1, at 7:30 p.m. The Very Rev. Roger Ferlo will preach, and the choir will sing Maurice Duruflé's haunting and beautiful setting of the Requiem Mass. Names may be submitted for the Necrology, to be read at that service, by email please, to Weezie Wells in the parish office, lwells@calvarypgh.org.

■ WELCOME TO CALVARY CHURCH

NEWCOMERS AND GUESTS are always welcome at Calvary Church. Our service uses the three books located in the pew: The Book of Common Prayer, The Hymnal 1982, and Lift Every Voice and Sing II. Directions in the service bulletin indicate where it is customary to stand or kneel. We invite you to participate as you are able. We hope you will take a moment to read and complete the Welcome Card in the pew, and place it in the offertory plate as it passes.

CHILDREN OF ALL AGES are welcome in worship services. Packets of materials for children are available from the ushers. Nursery Care available during the 9 a.m. and the 11 a.m. services. The Infants' and Toddlers' Nursery is downstairs on the Christian Education level.

PARISH COUNCIL invites you to stop by our "Welcome and Join-in" booth in the Parish Hall.

United Thank Offering

Sunday, October 27 marks the fall ingathering of UTO, the United Thank Offering. Women of Calvary (WoC), which coordinates this collection, wholeheartedly encourages members of the congregation as well as visitors to make a contribution to this worthy charitable undertaking. Please look for the blue envelope in your service bulletin on that day in which to make your donation at the offertory, or at such time in the near future which is convenient for you. Make checks payable to Calvary Episcopal Church and designated for UTO.

Saturday, October 26, Episcopal Church Women: Fall United Thank Offering Ingathering at All Souls Episcopal Church, North Versailles. The speaker will be Anne McStay from St. Paul and Rose Orphanage, Uganda. Bishop McConnell will be the celebrant. If attending, please mail your $15 check (for Luncheon) made payable to ECW Diocese of Pittsburgh to Debbie Wiles, 132 Rock Haven Lane, Pittsburgh, PA 15228. The deadline is October 20. Registration begins at 9:30 a.m.

Recycle a Coat and Warm a Heart

East End Cooperative Ministry is collecting warm coats, hats, gloves, and scarves to distribute to children and adults in our neighborhood. There is a special box in the Parish Hall. Please leave your donations there. The collection will run thru November 6!

Bishop's Visitation

We will welcome our Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Dorsey W. M. McConnell for a visitation on Sunday, October 20. He will be with us for the 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. services, with Confirmation at 11 a.m., and will also speak at the 10 a.m. Adult Forum. It is a special joy to have the Bishop with us on the first anniversary of his consecration here at Calvary.

Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

The annual choral Requiem service, commemorating all the faithful departed, is on Friday, November 1 at 7:30 p.m. Anyone wishing to have names included in the Necrology is asked to contact Weezie Wells at lwells@calvarypgh.org no later than Monday, October 28. The list will also appear in the All Saints' Sunday service bulletin on November 3, and the names will be read during the prayers of the people at the Requiem.

Attic Treasures at the Bazaar

We are in high gear preparing for the big event on November 9. We look forward to your donations which can be left at the church beginning on Sunday, November 3. (If you have clothing to donate, please use the basket in the Parish Hall. Books should be bagged separately. Sorry, but we can not accept TVs or draperies.) Contact us to arrange pick up of larger items on Wednesday, November 6. The success of our sale is dependent on treasures donated. The last day for drop off will be NOON on Thursday, November 7.

We are always looking for help the week of the sale. Especially needed are strong arms to assist in the setup, cleaning up after the sale on Saturday, and particularly on Sunday after the final sale to church members. Please contact Judy Wootten at wootten@windstream.net or Lyn Orr at lynreedorr@gmail.com.

Homeless Children's Awareness Week

October 13–20, 2013

This "invisible" problem in our community impacts children from infancy throughout their school years. Can you help? Needed are donations of school supplies, backpacks or small wheeling luggage pieces (gently used is okay), checks to Homeless Children's Education Fund, and volunteer tutors to help children in shelters. A box for donations is located in the Parish Hall on the table near the shopping cart. Need more info? Contact Judi Eversman at 412.683.0906 or juditheversman@gmail.com.

Book Signing

Calvary author Katherine Ayres has a new book out called Bear Season, a journey into Ursidae. Known for her young adult series and her children's books, this one is for everybody. Kathy writes about bears in literature, science and folklore, and, most intriguing, about her own "backyard" encounters with bears. Kathy will be in the Bookstore to sign your copy on Sunday, October 27.

The Bookstore at Calvary is open on Sunday, from 8:45 a.m. until 1 p.m., and Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m.

WoC Holiday Bazaar Three Weeks Away: November 9, 2013

Once again we'll be selling Mary Ellen Leigh's gourmet dog biscuits, which are always a sellout. That's her dog, Lady Alice Leigh, on the package.

Here's a rundown of what you'll find at our annual Holiday Bazaar:

- Gourmet Table: A variety of yummy homemade treats
- Baked Goods: Homemade pies, fudge, cookies, brownies and more
- Attic Treasures: Household goods like glassware, silverware, china, small lamps, toys, games, mugs, small appliances, small tables, framed prints, vases, serving pieces, holiday decorations and much more
- Nature's Gifts: Terrariums, wreaths, statuary, succulents, paper whites, herbs, live plants like mums and decorative cabbage and kale
- Silent Auction: A week in the Berkshires, a week at a private home in Moraine State Park, a handmade basket from Rwanda, a signed copy of Perks of Being a Wallflower and other celebrity items, hand-painted hummingbirds, a knitting bag from Nantucket, a week at Calvary Camp, and beauty products from L'Oreal, Redken, Pureology, TIGI and Malibu C
- Fine Linens: Tablecloths, pillowcases, hand towels, dresser scarves, table runners and embroidered items
- Handmade: A variety of handmade items including knitted or crocheted hats and mittens, baby blankets, caps for toddlers, one-of-a-kind jewelry and more
- Candles and Calendars: Holiday-themed candles and advent calendars
- Boutique: Gently used handbags, scarves, ties, wallets and other items
- Café: Stop by for coffee and pastries
- Raffle: Buy a ticket to win a lariat made of gray fresh-water pearls and aquamarine stones valued at $3,000.

Episcopal Workday at the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank

Join fellow Episcopalians from across the Diocese at our next volunteer workday at the Repack Center of the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank. We'll be working in the Repack Center at GPCFB's main Duquesne warehouse facility (1 North Linden St, Duquesne, PA 15110) from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, November 9. We'll assist the GPCFB repack team by inspecting, sorting, and repacking donated or purchased groceries. The exact project will depend on their inventory at the time. In the past we've had most enjoyable times repacking food ranging from cereals to oranges.

If you would like to get in the Thanksgiving spirit by volunteering for this rewarding activity sponsored by the diocesan Social Justice and Outreach Committee, contact Jerry Stephenson (JJmestephenon@verizon.net or 412.367.1032) by November 3 to reserve your slot.

Gobble Up the Bible

Our youth classes will be using this cookbook and others to make a few tasty treats this fall. Make sure to take a look at the children's table at coffee hour to see if there are any leftovers for you to try.

TODAY – Ownership, Consumerism, the American Dream, Sustaining Value:

A Dialogue about Stewardship. Stewardship is the spiritual attitude that guides us in using all of God's gracious gifts, without ever being enslaved by them.

- Ownership: what does it mean, given the statement, "For we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world. What does it profit anyone to gain even the whole world, and lose God?"
- Consumerism: 'He who has the most stuff wins'---what do we 'win'? We are always more than any grouping of 'things' we either have, or don't have.
- The parable of the talents: Does it set in place any reason to think that making large amounts of money is more pleasing to God than making less?
- Sustaining value: How do we avoid waste and participate in the renewal of God's creation? Everyone has some aspect of a stewardship ministry in taking care of their piece of the 'present' and encouraging discovery and development of other parts of creation.

Please join The Reverend John Fetterman and Mary Lou Southwood in a dialogue to explore concepts that challenge us in everyday life, and are an integral part of our relationship with God, our neighbors everywhere, and ourselves.

October 20 – Pittsburgh: The Holy City Is Still Being Built

Working from Saint Augustine's classic exposition of Psalm 122, Bishop Dorsey McConnell will invite us to imagine together a few aspects of the future of the Diocese and City of Pittsburgh over the next twenty years, and will offer some considerations regarding the possible mission and call of Calvary Church within them. The time will include at least twenty minutes for questions and answers

Coming: November 3 – Harry Potter and the Gospel

John Fetterman, our theologian in residence, welcomes Harry Potter fans of all ages to this intergenerational discussion. Some key issues in the stories, especially the first book, The Sorcerer's Stone will be addressed. The topics will include the problem of evil (What's fair?); salvation (What's it take?) and grace (How in the world?).

_____ Calvary Youth Group _____

On Saturday November 2 we will be going rock climbing at the Climbing Wall, 7501 Penn Avenue in Point Breeze from 10–noon. There is a $10 charge and the completion of a waiver/permission slip, both are needed by Sunday October 20th. Julie and Geoffrey Dixon-Ernst will have the waiver/permission slips and can take your money. Please find them over the next few Sundays at church or bring it to the October 20th CYG meeting. Please provide cash or a check made out to Calvary with CYG in the memo line.

Please check out the CYG section on the Calvary website (www.calvarypgh.org) for the fall calendar of events, photos and other information. Our next CYG gathering is Sunday, October 20 from 1–3:30 at Calvary. Lunch is included.

SUSTAIN, GROW, REJOICE!

◆◆◆ 2014 Annual Appeal

Today begins the 2014 Annual Appeal. You should have received your pledge packet in the mail this past week and we hope that you will prayerfully consider your participation. Our goals this year are to have 100% participation of our parish members AND conclude the campaign before year-end, so that we can concentrate on the ministry work. Both goals are extremely challenging and require prayerful consideration and a timely response in order to be successful. To celebrate this beginning we have several events for today:

- We gratefully acknowledge an 'incentive' gift of $25,000 from an anonymous donor. The gift recognizes the efforts of Calvary's Vestry to improve communication about the financial health of the parish, and to implement budget controls that represent intentional and careful stewardship. The gift comes from someone who also sees the challenges for Calvary in 2014, as we seek the resources to support a full complement of clergy and all the ministries of the congregation. We hope this incentive inspires your own personal commitment.
- The momentum continues with 'early' pledges by the Vestry, Parish Council, Stewardship Committee, Calling Committee and Finance Committee.
- The Stewardship Committee will host coffee hour, assisted by the Youth Group.
- The Youth Group has designed and created our 'meter' to track number of pledges, dollar balance, and percentage participation. They will update the pledge meter weekly to track our progress.
- The Stewardship Booth is now open in the Parish Hall, staffed by committee members and members of the Youth Group. Stop by to drop off your pledge, pick up additional forms, ask questions or just visit!
- Today's Adult Forum: The forum will be a dialogue between the Rev. John Fetterman and Mary Lou Southwood to discuss concepts that challenge us in everyday life: money, spending, possessions and the use of our financial resources. These ideas are an integral part of our relationship with God, our neighbors everywhere, and ourselves.

We have tried to make it as easy as possible to pledge. If you like to use the paper pledge form provided, it is easily stapled for confidentiality, so an envelope is not necessarily required. Return your paper pledge page one of several ways:

- Mail the pledge page in the envelope provided
- Drop your pledge in the weekly collection basket
- Give your pledge to the person in the Stewardship Booth
- Drop your pledge in the Stewardship mailbox in the mail room (There is a red heading on the slot).

For those who prefer to pledge electronically, you can complete the pledge information online by going to the Calvary website (www.calvarypg.org) and following the link. Please also consider following up your electronic pledge with an electronic donation option. Complete the authorization form in your packet and you can ensure that your pledge will be paid electronically, eliminating the need for envelopes or any other action from you.

If you have any other questions, or suggestions, please contact me at stewardship@calvary.org or at 412.901.6669.
Many thanks in advance for your participation in our success to Sustain, Grow, and Rejoice in our Parish Community.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

LORD, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our LORD, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Second Book of Kings [5:1-3, 7-15c]

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favor with his master, because by him the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy." When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me." But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel." So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean." But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, "I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?" He turned and went away in a rage. But his servants approached and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, 'Wash, and be clean?'" So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean. Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; he came and stood before him and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel."

Psalm 111

- 1 Hallelujah! I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, * in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation.
- 2 Great are the deeds of the LORD! *
they are studied by all who delight in them.
- 3 His work is full of majesty and splendor, *
and his righteousness endures for ever.
- 4 He makes his marvelous works to be remembered; *
the LORD is gracious and full of compassion. —continued on reverse side

- 5 He gives food to those who fear him; *
he is ever mindful of his covenant.
- 6 He has shown his people the power of his works *
in giving them the lands of the nations.
- 7 The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice; *
all his commandments are sure.
- 8 They stand fast for ever and ever, *
because they are done in truth and equity.
- 9 He sent redemption to his people;
he commanded his covenant for ever; *
holy and awesome is his Name.
- 10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; *
those who act accordingly have a good understanding;
his praise endures for ever.
- Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy [2:8-15]

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David – that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful – for he cannot deny himself. Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke [17:11-19]

Response before the Gospel: Glory to you, LORD Christ.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!” When he saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” Then he said to him, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.”

Response after the Gospel: Praise to you, LORD Christ.
