Offertory Anthem Come, O Thou Traveler Unknown

Harvey B. Gaul

*Come, O thou Traveler unknown,
Whom still I bold, but cannot see.
My company before is gone,
And I am left alone with thee.
With thee all night I mean to stay,
And wrestle till the break of day.*

*Yield to me now, for I am weak,
But confident in self-despair;
Speak to my heart, in blessings speak,
Be conquered by my instant prayer;
Speak, or thou never hence shalt move,
And tell me if thy name is Love.*

*'Tis Love, 'tis Love, thou die'st for me!
I hear thy whisper in my heart,
The morning breaks, the shadows flee!
Pure, universal Love thou art
To me, to all thy heart doth move.
Thy nature and thy name is Love.*

- Donate household goods like glassware, silverware, china, small lamps, toys, games, mugs, small appliances, furniture (nothing too large), framed prints, vases, serving pieces, holiday decorations and anything else in good condition you can part with to Attic Treasures. We can pick up larger items on Wednesday, November 6.
- Donate good-as-new pillowcases, hand towels, dresser scarves, table runners and similar items to Fine Linens. Margie Muldoon will pick them up if you leave them at the church.
- Still looking for knitted or crocheted items to sell.
- Do you bake a mean apple pie? Can preserves? Make the best split pea soup in your neighborhood? We'd love to sell your homemade baked goods, soup, jams, pickles, candy and other goodies at our Baked Goods and Gourmet tables. Baking this weekend? Freeze now, donate later. Just sayin'.
- The boutique needs your gently used handbags, scarves, ties, small leather goods and other items you no longer use. Why not dust off that Marc Jacobs wallet you got and never used and donate it for a good cause?
- Buy a raffle ticket to win a lariat made of gray fresh-water pearls and aquamarine stones from Elyssa B. Design in Los Angeles. It's valued at $3,000.

TODAY – Pittsburgh: The Holy City Is Still Being Built. Working from Saint Augustine's classic exposition of Psalm 122, Bishop Dorsey McConnell will invite us to imagine together a few aspects of the future of the Diocese and City of Pittsburgh over the next twenty years, and will offer some considerations regarding the possible mission and call of Calvary Church within them. The time will include at least twenty minutes for questions and answers.

October 27 – Requiem. Maurice Duruflé's Requiem is a masterful and almost mystical fusion of Gregorian chant and Impressionist harmony. Donald Wilkins, Calvary's Organist Emeritus, has performed the work extensively. Join him in the Forum for a discussion of its structure and substance, in preparation for its presentation by the Choir the following Friday.

*Interested parents and students are invited to a brainstorming session with Father Fetterman on Sunday, October 27 in the Evans Room at 10 a.m. This meeting is in preparation of the Harry Potter and the Gospel Forum on November 3. # Twenty-second Sunday after Pentecost

October 20, 2013

Proper 24

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our LORD, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Genesis [32:22-31]

The same night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.

Psalm 121

- 1 I lift up my eyes to the hills; *
from where is my help to come?
- 2 My help comes from the LORD, *
the maker of heaven and earth.
- 3 He will not let your foot be moved *
and he who watches over you will not fall asleep.
- 4 Behold, he who keeps watch over Israel *
shall neither slumber nor sleep;
- 5 The LORD himself watches over you; *
the LORD is your shade at your right hand,
- 6 So that the sun shall not strike you by day, *
nor the moon by night.
- 7 The LORD shall preserve you from all evil; *
it is he who shall keep you safe.
- 8 The LORD shall watch over your going out and your coming in, *
from this time forth for evermore.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: * as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy [3:14–4:5]

As for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work. In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favorable or unfavorable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke

[18:1-8]

Response before the Gospel: Glory to you, LORD Christ.

Jesus told his disciples a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.' For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.'" And the LORD said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

Response after the Gospel: Praise to you, LORD Christ.
