On Friday evening, November 1, the annual choral Requiem liturgy will be offered, with the ethereal music of Maurice Duruflé as the setting of the Mass. (Duruflé was an important figure in the organ-culture of mid-twentieth-century Paris, and the Requiem features the organ in especially prominent ways; it makes a fitting way to mark the fiftieth anniversary of Calvary's Casavant organ.) The Very Rev. Roger A. Ferlo, President of Bexley Seabury Seminary, will be the preacher. (Names for the Necrology can be submitted until midday tomorrow by emailing Weezie Wells at lwells@calvarypgh.org.)

Music at Communion Morning glory, starlit sky Craig Phillips

*Morning glory, starlit sky,
soaring music, scholar's truth,
flight of swallows, autumn leaves
memory's treasure, grace of youth;*

*Open are the gifts of God,
gifts of love to mind and sense;
hidden is love's agony,
love's endeavor, love's expense.*

*Love that gives, gives ever more,
gives with zeal, with eager hands,
spares not, keeps not, all outpours,
ventures all, its all expends.*

*Drained is love in making full;
bound in setting others free;
poor in making many rich;
weak in giving power to be.*

Therefore be who shows us God helpless hangs upon the Tree and the nails and crown of thorns tell of what God's love must be.

*Here is God; no monarch he throned in easy state to reign;
here is God, whose arms of love aching, spent, the world sustain.*

MUSICAL NOTES

Of the three-hundred-or-so motets composed by the Italian Renaissance composer Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (c. 1525-94) none has a wider familiarity in our day than the four-voice Sicut cervus, a setting of the opening verse of Psalm 42. Its elegant, arching musical lines, imitated from one voice to the next through the texture, phrase by phrase, are perfect exemplars of this composer's artistry and skill. The longing suggested by the deftly-placed suspensions in the closing section (anima mea ad te Deus) is especially effective.

Craig Phillips (b. 1961) has served All Saints Episcopal Church in Beverly Hills, California, for many years, and has been the Director of Music there since 2009. He is among the most sought-after composers serving the Church today, with many commissions of both choral and organ music to his credit. This morning's Communion music, a setting of a lovely poem printed as Hymn 585 in The Hymnal 1982, was commissioned by the Association of Anglican Musicians for its national conference in 2006; the Trumpet Tune dates from the early 1990s. (The latter showcases the newly restored Trompette-en-Chamade stop, the horizontally-mounted pipes in the West Gallery.)

On Friday evening, November 1, the annual choral Requiem liturgy will be offered, with the ethereal music of Maurice Duruflé as the setting of the Mass. (Duruflé was an important figure in the organ-culture of mid-twentieth-century Paris, and the Requiem features the organ in especially prominent ways; it makes a fitting way to mark the fiftieth anniversary of Calvary's Casavant organ.) The Very Rev. Roger A. Ferlo, President of Bexley Seabury Seminary, will be the preacher. (Names for the Necrology can be submitted until midday tomorrow. Please email Weezie Wells at lwells@calvarypgh.org.)

United Thank Offering

Today marks the fall ingathering of UTO, the United Thank Offering. Women of Calvary (WoC), which coordinates this collection, wholeheartedly encourages members of the congregation as well as visitors to make a contribution to this worthy charitable undertaking. Please use the blue envelope in your service bulletin to make your donation at the offertory, or at such time in the near future which is convenient for you. Make checks payable to Calvary Episcopal Church and designated for UTO.

Recycle a Coat and Warm a Heart

East End Cooperative Ministry is collecting warm coats, hats, gloves, and scarves to distribute to children and adults in our neighborhood. Men's coats in large and extra large sizes are especially needed. There is a special box in the Parish Hall. Please leave your donations there. The collection will run thru November 15.

Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

The annual choral Requiem service, commemorating all the faithful departed, is on Friday, November 1 at 7:30 p.m. Anyone wishing to have names included in the Necrology is asked to contact Weezie Wells at lwells@calvarypgh.org no later than Monday, October 28. The list will also appear in the All Saints' Sunday service bulletin on November 3, and the names will be read during the prayers of the people at the Requiem.

Book Signing Today

Calvary author Katherine Ayres has a new book out called Bear Season, a journey into Ursidae. Known for her young adult series and her children's books, this one is for everybody. Kathy writes about bears in literature, science and folklore, and, most intriguing, about her own "backyard" encounters with bears. Kathy will be in the Parlor to sign your copy from 10–11 a.m., and after the 11 o'clock service.

Episcopal Workday at the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank

Join fellow Episcopalians from across the Diocese at our next volunteer workday at the Repack Center of the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank. We'll be working in the Repack Center at GPCFB's main Duquesne warehouse facility (1 North Linden St, Duquesne, PA 15110) from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, November 9. Contact Jerry Stephenson (JJmestephenon@verizon.net or 412.367.1032) by November 3 to reserve your slot.

Small Group Meets Every Saturday 10:30-11:30 a.m.

Dr. Sam Shoemaker believed that small groups were essential to build fellowship with one another for purposes of spiritual growth and renewal. The Next Step is a small group that uses Dr. Sam's principles to help us lead spiritual lives and take what we learn into the world. Come and be with us.

Vehicle Security

We want to remind everyone to secure any valuables when parking in our lot. Don't leave purses, packages and electronic devices in plain sight. Keep your windows tightly closed, and always lock your car. Bicycles should be secured with a lock even if they are on a carrier attached to your vehicle. Several break-ins have been reported in the past few weeks in our own lot, plus on Shady Avenue and Alder Street.

Sustain, Grow, and Rejoice!

We are in the midst of our 2014 Annual Appeal. We hope that you will prayerfully consider your participation and send in your pledge before Dedication Sunday on November 17. The Stewardship Booth is open in the Parish Hall, staffed by committee members, so that you can drop off your pledge, pick up additional forms, ask questions or just visit! LOCA is updating the pledge meter that they designed and created, so stop by to see our progress.

We have tried to make it as easy as possible to pledge. If you like to use the paper pledge card provided, it is easily stapled for confidentiality, so an envelope is not necessarily required. Return your paper pledge page one of several ways:

- Mail the pledge page in the envelope provided
- Drop your pledge in the weekly collection basket
- Give your pledge to the person in the Stewardship Booth
- Drop your pledge in the Stewardship mailbox in the mail room. It's marked with a red tag to catch your eye.
- For those who prefer to pledge electronically, you can complete the pledge information online by going to the Calvary website (www.calvarypgh.org) and following the links. Please also consider following up your electronic pledge with an electronic donation option. Complete the authorization form in your packet and you can ensure that your pledge will be paid electronically, eliminating the need for envelopes or any other action from you.

If you have any other questions, or suggestions, please contact me at stewardship@calvarypgh.org or at 412.901.6669. Many thanks in advance for your participation in our success to Sustain, Grow, and Rejoice in our Parish Community.

All are welcome to attend.

Christian Formation _____

Calvary's Bible Study Class
meets Sunday mornings at 9 in the Conference Room.

Starting today!

Sign ups for the 2013 Calvary Christmas Pageant will begin today. Look for the flashing lights in the hallway outside the Parish Hall. The live animals will be here and we need lots of lively children and youth to be a part of our presentation. The Pageant will be on Sunday, December 22 during the 11 o'clock service.

Toy request

Our toys and children's book get quite a work out on Sunday mornings. We are in need of some replacements. If any parents are cleaning your toy storage areas getting ready for additional items that will be added to your child's collection at Christmas, please consider donating items to Calvary. Etch a Sketch, Magna Doodle, children's books or any other "quiet toys" can be placed in my mailbox in the room across from the reception desk.

Twenty-third Sunday after Pentecost

October 27, 2013

Proper 25

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our LORD, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah [14:7-10, 19-22]

Although our iniquities testify against us, act, O LORD, for your name's sake; our apostasies indeed are many, and we have sinned against you. O hope of Israel, its savior in time of trouble, why should you be like a stranger in the land, like a traveler turning aside for the night? Why should you be like someone confused, like a mighty warrior who cannot give help? Yet you, O LORD, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; do not forsake us! Thus says the LORD concerning this people: Truly they have loved to wander, they have not restrained their feet; therefore the LORD does not accept them, now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins. Have you completely rejected Judah? Does your heart loathe Zion? Why have you struck us down so that there is no healing for us? We look for peace, but find no good; for a time of healing, but there is terror instead. We acknowledge our wickedness, O LORD, the iniquity of our ancestors, for we have sinned against you. Do not spurn us, for your name's sake; do not dishonor your glorious throne; remember and do not break your covenant with us. Can any idols of the nations bring rain? Or can the heavens give showers? Is it not you, O LORD our God? We set our hope on you, for it is you who do all this.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 84:1-6

- 1 How dear to me is your dwelling, O LORD of hosts! *
My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
- 2 The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young; *
by the side of your altars, O LORD of hosts, my King and my God.
- 3 Happy are they who dwell in your house! *
they will always be praising you.
- 4 Happy are the people whose strength is in you! *
whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way.
- 5 Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, * for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.

- 6 They will climb from height to height, *
and the God of gods will reveal himself in Zion.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy {4:6-8, 16-18}
As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the LORD, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the LORD stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The LORD will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke
{18:9-14}

Response before the Gospel: Glory to you, LORD Christ.

Jesus told his parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Response after the Gospel: Praise to you, LORD Christ.
