TELL OUT, MY SOUL, THE GREATNESS OF THE LORD

1 Tell out, my soul, the great-ness of the Lord!
2 Tell out, my soul, the great-ness of his Name!
3 Tell out, my soul, the great-ness of his might!
4 Tell out, my soul, the glo - ries of his word!

Un - num - bered bless - ings give my spi - rit voice;
Make known his might, the deeds his arm has done;
Powers and do - min - ions lay their glo - ry by.
Firm is his prom - ise, and his mer - cy sure.

ten - der to me the prom - ise of his word;
his mer - cy sure, from age to age the same;
Proud hearts and stub - born wills are put to flight,
Tell out, my soul, the great - ness of the Lord

in God my Sa - vior shall my heart re - jice.
his ho - ly Name—the Lord, the Might - y One.
the hun - gry fed, the hum - ble lift - ed high.

The Homily The Reverend Leslie G. Reimer

The Nicene Creed Congregation standing

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People Congregation standing

Intercessor Living God, in your mercy,
People hear our prayer.

Confession and Absolution

CELEBRANT AND PEOPLE: God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

The Peace

CELEBRANT: The peace of the Lord be always with you.
PEOPLE: And also with you.

All may greet one another.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

CELEBRANT: The Lord be with you.

PEOPLE: And also with you.

CELEBRANT: Lift up your hearts.

PEOPLE: We lift them to the Lord.

CELEBRANT: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

PEOPLE: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

CELEBRANT: We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love. And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we say:

CELEBRANT AND PEOPLE:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God. Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with {_____ and} all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer All say together

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread (A brief silence is kept.)

CELEBRANT: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

PEOPLE: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

THE ADMINISTRATION OF HOLY COMMUNION

All baptized persons are welcome to receive Holy Communion.

Those not wishing to receive Communion may come forward for a blessing.

Parents are encouraged to bring children to receive Communion or a blessing.

Postcommunion Prayer All say together

God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing Congregation standing

The Dismissal All respond Thanks be to God.

MUSICAL NOTES

Tickets are available for purchase this morning for the concert on Monday, September 14, by the Choir of Trinity College, Cambridge, one of the finest mixed-voice ensembles in the world. Their program, concluding the “Britsburgh Festival” running through the coming week, includes music by a variety of composers, ancient and modern. Tickets are $40 for premium seating (nave-front and transepts) and $25 for regular seating; students are admitted free with a valid ID, for seating in the side aisles.

Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625) was one of the bright lights of the late English Renaissance, in the generation after William Byrd. He composed numerous sacred and secular works for voices, including a number of anthems that continue to be widely-sung nearly four centuries after his death, such as this morning's Offertory Anthem. A number of his hymn-tunes continue in modern use, as well, including Song 22, which we sing today at Communion, and upon which the Postlude, by one of Gibbons' most illustrious musical descendants, the late-Victorian composer C. V. Stanford, is based. Gibbons also composed a considerable amount of keyboard music, a relatively new genre in his lifetime, and of music for viol-consort, the string quartet of his day.

Orlando di Lasso (1532-94) lived a remarkably cosmopolitan life for his time. Born in the Netherlands, he was pressed into singing service by an Italian nobleman at the age of twelve, and spent the next ten years in a series of positions in major Italian musical centers, including Mantua, Milan, Naples, and Rome. He eventually settled in Munich, where he enjoyed a long and stable tenure. He composed in idioms suited to all these venues, and more, ranging from French polyphonic songs to Italian madrigals to German Lieder to Latin masses and motets.

The lives of these two Orlandos overlapped by scarcely a decade, but their music embodies broadly similar styles. Music in the British Isles tended, by virtue of (literal) “isolation,” to lag behind stylistic trends on the Continent. Indeed, by Gibbons' lifetime, Continental music had moved a great distance from the style of Lassus to the sound-world of Monteverdi.

Choral rehearsals for children and adults resume this week. Children and Youth in Grades 3-12 are invited to become choristers, rehearsing on Wednesday afternoons from 4:30-6, and on Sundays from 9-9:50. Interested adults are encouraged to contact the music-director to schedule an audition for the Calvary Choir, by phoning 412.661.0210, ext. 120, or emailing him at alewis@calvarypgh.org.

Prayers of the People Today

Our brothers and sisters in the African Methodist Episcopal Church have asked that all churches join in solidarity this Sunday, seeking liberty and justice for all and offering our commitment to end racism.

Mindful of the nine people killed at Mother Emmanuel AME Church in Charleston and the ongoing need to pray and to work together, we have included petitions in Calvary's Prayers of the People this morning in response to this request.

Our Parish Life

Look Up!

Intended to bring light into the center of the nave, the clerestory windows high above us also bring color and history. Who are those folks up there; how are they identified; and are there some interesting stories about these windows? Join Roger Westman, Architectural-History Committee tour guide, on Sunday, September 20 following the 11 o'clock service for a closer look at these stately windows. Meet him behind the last pew after the postlude.

Coffee Hours

Starting on September 20 we will resume the coffee hour and social gathering after the 11 o'clock service. I am in need of the various groups from the church to sign up to host. Other ideas could be to consider hosting a Sunday to mark a special occasion or honoring a particular event or person. I do realize that many people support these coffee hours on multiple occasions since they are active in many different groups. Their help is greatly appreciated. The coffee hour is enjoyed but its success depends on volunteers. Please contact Judy Wootten at 724.327.7907 (wootten@windstream.net) to schedule a Sunday.

Elsie Hilliard Hillman Memorial Service

A public memorial service for Mrs. Hillman will take place at Calvary Church on Saturday, September 19, 2015 at 10:30 a.m.

Additional Ambassadors Needed

The Ambassadors help cultivate potential new members and make them feel comfortable settling into our church community. If you can take the time to send two emails and/or make two phone calls a month and would like to help prospective members find their niche in Calvary we need you – please contact Jim Southwood at 724.625.9275 or Jim.Southwood@gmail.com.

Christian Formation News

Registration forms are now available in the tract racks and on the bulletin boards in the Parish Hall and Refectory. Please complete a form for all children and youth that will be attending classes in the fall. These forms may be placed in the offering plate or in Susan Roth's mailbox.

EECM Food Pantry "Food of the Month"

Each month, East End Cooperative Ministry makes a special appeal for a particular food pantry staple; however, donations of all non-perishable foods are always welcome! The food for September is Rice-a-Roni, for October it's Stuffing Mix. Leave your donation in the shopping cart in the Parish Hall. Thank you so much.

Holiday Bazaar – Silent Auction

We desperately need big-ticket items like Steelers or Penguins tickets, signed and numbered art, tickets to the Symphony or Opera, a week at your summer house in Maine or anything else you think will command a high price. Contact Sandy Ekstrom at 412.721.9764 or sandyeks@verizon.com for more information.

We Want You for Foyer Groups

Now is the time for all interested people to be aware of Foyer Groups assembling for Fall. Please let us know you are interested in connecting with Foyer by calling Betty Carlson at 412.731.9685 or Marsha Morris at the Church, 412.661.0120. Foyer Groups are small gatherings of Calvaryites getting to know each other, and of course, we EAT! We meet in homes, a restaurant, wherever it is convenient. We welcome you.

Celebration Sunday

Please plan to join us for a celebratory picnic on Sunday, September 13, following the 11 o'clock service. This is an opportunity to gather as the whole community at the end of summer to see old friends and make new ones. Calvary will provide hot dogs from the grill, something delicious to drink and dessert. We are asking parishioners whose last names begin with A-M to provide a side dish, and parishioners whose last names begin with N-Z to provide a salad. Please prepare your side dish or salad to feed 6 to 8 people and please bring it in a dish that can go directly on the table.

Prayer List Update

On September 13, 2015, we will make a fresh start with the Prayer List included in the Sunday bulletin. If there is someone whose name you would like to have on the list, please give that information to Weezie Wells (lwells@calvarypgh.org) or Leslie Reimer (lreimer@calvarypgh.org). The renewed list will include only the names which have been sent to us. People may remain on the prayer list for as long as necessary, because we know and understand that many needs are on going. However, when someone is ready to be removed from the list, we ask that you let us know.

Bookstore Volunteers Needed

The volunteer commitment is at least one 3-hour shift each month. The Bookstore is open Tuesday–Friday and on Sunday. This year there is a new opportunity for the Bookstore to be open on Sunday afternoons before or after the CandleMass service beginning in late September or the monthly Calvary Camp service. Please get in touch with me by phone or email for details, or let a Bookstore volunteer know of your interest.
–Pat Standring, 412.481.8613, pstandring@verizon.net

An Opportunity to Serve: Ushers

We have a number of dedicated men and women who exercise this ministry at both the 9 and 11 o'clock worship services, usually once per month or more. We are hoping to add to their number. If you are interested in exploring the ministry of an usher, please join us on Sunday, September 20 at 10:15 a.m. at the west entrance to the church.

We will have a training time with newcomers and those currently serving. We can all learn together.
–Jonathon

Our New Photo Directory

Be part of our upcoming photography event. We will take reservations for portrait sessions for our new directory beginning on Celebration Sunday, September 13, 2015. The photo dates are October 6–10, 13 & 14, 2015. Each church family receives a complimentary 8x10 and a free directory for participating. You will have the opportunity to purchase additional portraits for yourself, family and friends. (Pets are welcome to your portrait session). Look for inserts in your service bulletins for more details. You may schedule NOW for a photo session by following the link on our website at www.calvarypgh.org.

Education for Ministry

The EfM groups at Calvary are recruiting new members for the Wednesday evening and the Thursday morning seminars (starting in mid-September.) For more information, contact Vanessa Sterling, Diocesan Coordinator, at 412.551.2042 or vmsterling@gmail.com.

The Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Proper 18

September 6, 2015

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Grant us, O LORD, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our LORD, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah [35:4-7a]

Say to those who are of a fearful heart, "Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you." Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water.

Reader: The Word of the LORD.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 146

- 1 Hallelujah! Praise the LORD, O my soul! *
I will praise the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.
- 2 Put not your trust in rulers, nor in any child of earth, *
for there is no help in them.
- 3 When they breathe their last, they return to earth, *
and in that day their thoughts perish.
- 4 Happy are they who have the God of Jacob for their help! *
whose hope is in the LORD their God;
- 5 Who made heaven and earth, the seas, and all that is in them; *
who keeps his promise for ever;
- 6 Who gives justice to those who are oppressed, *
and food to those who hunger.
- 7 The LORD sets the prisoners free;
the LORD opens the eyes of the blind; *
the LORD lifts up those who are bowed down;
- 8 The LORD loves the righteous; the LORD cares for the stranger; *
he sustains the orphan and widow, but frustrates the way of the wicked.
- 9 The LORD shall reign for ever, *
your God, O Zion, throughout all generations. Hallelujah!
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Letter of James [2:1-10, (11-13), 14-17]

My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favoritism really believe in our glorious LORD Jesus Christ? For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Have a seat here, please," while to the one who is poor you say, “Stand there,” or, “Sit at my feet,” have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court? Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you? You do well if you really fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. [For the one who said, “You shall not commit adultery,” also said, “You shall not murder.” Now if you do not commit adultery but if you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty. For judgment will be without mercy to anyone who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.] What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, “Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill,” and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

Reader: The Word of the LORD.
Congregation: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Mark
[7:24-37]

Response before the Gospel: Glory to you, LORD Christ.

Jesus set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, “Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children’s food and throw it to the dogs.” But she answered him, “Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children’s crumbs.” Then he said to her, “For saying that, you may go – the demon has left your daughter.” So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone. Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, “Ephphatha,” that is, “Be opened.” And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, “He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak.”

Response after the Gospel: Praise to you, LORD Christ.
